The Online Master of BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Are you a business professional who values the interconnectedness of systems, processes and people? Is your inclination to dig beneath the surface to understand how to strategically effect change and drive results in an organization? The recently redesigned Champlain College online Master of Business Administration (MBA) program was developed to provide a framework for today's business professionals to think more critically, work more collaboratively, and approach complex workplace challenges more holistically.

As more businesses and organizations in both the public and private sector demand not just a technical degree, but creativity and critical thinking to address today's business challenges, Champlain College's MBA program bridges that gap by preparing adult learners with sophisticated skills and knowledge rooted in real-world application. What's more, the Champlain MBA offers you a chance to specialize in a number of high-growth areas, including Accounting, Advanced Management, Health Care Administration, Human Resource Management, Leadership, Positive Organization Development and Supply Chain Management, increasing your relevance and expertise in a field of interest.

UPON COMPLETING THE MBA PROGRAM, YOU WILL BE EQUIPPED TO:

- > Conduct complex change analysis using design and systems thinking.
- > Adeptly identify problems and formulate solutions recognizing impacts enterprise-wide.
- > Deliver effective communication using logical, persuasive, fact-based arguments.
- > Evaluate risk through questioning underlying assumptions and emerging trends.
- > Ethically balance qualitative and quantitative factors, including interpretation of financial statements and recognizing contending interests.
